Citizens Association Meets Tomorrow

The Greenbelt Citizens Association will meet in the home economics room of the Center school tomorrow, Friday, February 18, at 8:15 p.m.

Bernard Suttler, a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who specializes in juvenile cases, will be the guest speaker at the meeting. He will speak on the individual citizen's responsibility in juvenile delinquency. A question-and-answer period will follow his talk.

Mrs. Margaret Carmody, president of the Citizen's Association, stated that in choosing juvenile delinquency as the subject of this month's meeting, she was prompted by the editorial in the January 27 issue of the Cooperator "Revive Us Again."

Mrs. Carmody stated that meetings of the Citizens Association the last few months were so poorly attended that the election of officers which was scheduled for the September meeting could not be held.

Drop-Inn Plans Hayride And Open House

Friday night will feature another open house at the Drop-Inn for the Senior High after the home basketball game, while the Junior High have a hayride and wienie roast at the lake planned for Saturday, provided the weather is good.

Frankie Kellaher, chairman of the hayride, plans for the trucks to leave the youth center at 7:30, take a drive through the neighboring area, return to the lake for refreshments, and then return to the Drop-Inn at the usual closing time, 11 p.m. There will be a small fee to cover cost of the trucks and refreshments. All those interested in the hayride must have signed reservations in before Saturday. The Drop-Inn will be open as usual for those not interested in the hayride, and in case of bad weather, there will be open house at the center.

Two new activities are to be added to the rapidly improving program at the center. The first of these is a knitting club under the direction of Mrs. Ervin Dietzel which will hold its first meeting next Tuesday afternoon, February 22, at 4 p.m. in the library of the Drop-Inn. Both beginners and those already engaged in knitting projects are invited, and the class is open to both boys and girls of either Junior or Senior High group.

The second activity will be a photography club under the leadership of Paul Kasko. This group will hold its first get-together on Wednesday evening, February 23, at 8 p.m., also in the library. This too is open to both boys and girls of either of the two age groups. This club will spend its time discussing picture taking, comparing results, and will act as official photographers for all youth center activities.

St. Hugh's To Present "The Fugitive" Next Week

On Thursday and Friday, February 24 and 25, "The Fugitive" will be shown in Greenbelt under the sponsorship of St. Hugh's Parish Committee, according to Joseph Moran, chairman of the project.

The local showing is for the benefit of St. Hugh's building fund, and will be shown at regular prices. "The Fugitive," a movie adaptation of the celebrated Graham Greene novel, "The Labyrinthine Ways," also known as "The Power and the Glory," stars Henry Fonda, Dolores Del Rio and Leo Carillo. Tickets may be obtained from Mr. Moran or a member of his committee.

The Police Blotter

The nine-year-old son of a Greenbelt resident narrowly escaped serious injury last week. A number of young hoodlums, all residing in the 73 Court of Ridge, forced the youngster into the woods where they tied a rope around his neck. Then, throwing the rope over the limb of a tree, they tied the other end to a stray dog. The dog was then called, and urged to run. It was not determined who rescued the youngster, but he escaped without any serious harm done to him. All the children involved in the escapade were identified. Later, the parent of one who was called the ringleader, called to state that her child was not responsible for the incident.

After an interview that took place at the police station last Monday night, five young boys, ages 11 to 13, were put on probation for 30 days for their part in the series of illegal entries and robberies of the North End food store. They are to be restricted to their own home and back yard, with consent granted for them to attend school, church, and Sunday School, and complete restitution will be made to the North End food store. Mr. Roy Bright, state probation and parole officer, who is assigned to several counties including Prince Georges County, Police Chief Pangagoulis, the boys and their parents took part in the interview. The money expended for the restitution of damages will be repaid to the parents by the boys from their allowances.

Last week's heavy snow was the cause of some beautiful scenic sights but caused one accident on Southwest Road, involving a car and a bus. The auto, driven by Albert Hutchinson, of Hyattsville, skidded on the ice and collided with the bus approaching on the other side of the road, causing considerable damage to both vehicles. In an attempt to avoid a crash, the bus swerved and ran off the side of the road. Mrs. Isabel Wilhelm, a passenger on the bus was shaken up and she was taken to the Leland Memorial Hospital where she was treated for bruised ribs.

Young Gregory Vella, 6-B Hillside, was bitten by a dog, and taken to a doctor for treatment. His wound was determined to be superficial, but the dog will be kept under observation for a period of time. The owner of the dog has agreed to pay for the medical expenses. Information received from the police department discloses that the keeping of a pet does not violate a town ordinance but is contrary to the terms of federal leases.

A call was received from Mrs. Luther Hurt, of Tract 83 (the white frame house near the Legion Home), for a ladder from the fire truck to rescue two men trapped in her home. The men were carrying a refrigerator from the first floor to an upstairs room, when the gas seal on the refrigerator broke. The men were unable to leave the room, as the refrigerator blocked the door. The fire department responded and upon arrival found that the men had escaped from the window to a roof, from where they were able to make their way to the ground.

A car belonging to James Karitas was found blocking Glenn Dale Road last week and was moved into a driveway by Edward Walker, of Glenn Dale Road. Mr. Karitas informed the police department that he had left the car at the Legion Home the night before.

The windows in the High School were found open last week by the police department. The principal was notified, but it has not been determined whether anything is missing.

GCS Members Get 1.8% Patronage Return

Greenbelt Consumer Services members who turned in their 1948 patronage slips will receive a refund of 1.8% this year, as well as 5% dividend on their stock, it was determined this week, as the auditor's report was announced. The cooperative's total volume for 1948 was $1,881,509.65, with a net margin, or income, for the co-op of $42,443. According to the by-laws passed at the last membership meeting, 20% of this income must be put into the permanent reserve, 5% dividend paid on stock, and the remainder, after taxes, allocated to patronage refund.

The complete financial report will be presented at the GCS annual meeting next Wednesday, February 23, held at the Center school auditorium at 8 p.m. Other reports will be the president's, general manager's, and committee reports. Election of a complete board of directors will also be held that evening. A recorded comedy skit, "Coop, 1948" will close the evening.

The recent low sales volume at the North End food store was brought out in the general manager's report, presented by Bassett Ferguson to the GCS board of directors at its regular meeting last Friday. The store's business for January 1949 was $7,028, a $3,000 drop from the January 1948 figure of $10,021, and it operated at a loss of $355.43 for the month. This business, Mr. Ferguson said, was presumably lost to the new food store. He pointed out the problems of maintaining supermarket prices in a poorly-laid out neighborhood store.

The board agreed that further discussion should be held on the subject with members in the North End particularly concerned to be consulted.

Harvey Brown, president of the International Machinists Union, who is in Washington testifying on the Taft-Hartley bill, will speak on "Labor and Co-ops." Nominees received at press time for the nine board vacancies were Edward Meredith, Robert Mitchell, I. J. Parker, Eleanor Ritchie, James C. Smith, and Charlotte Walsh, in addition to the present members: Walter Bierwagen, T. G. Davidsen, Carnie Harper, Paul Kasko, Frank Lastner, Ben Rosenzweig, Chester Tucker, Henry Walter, and James Wolfe.

Girl Scouts To Hold Meeting On Sunday

All parents and friends of the Greenbelt Girl Scouts and Brownies are invited to their celebration of International Thinking Day, Sunday, Feb. 20 at the Center School from 3-4 o'clock. A play "Girl Scouts Also Serve" is on the program.

International Thinking Day, sometimes called Friendship Day, Feb. 22, was started by Juliette Low to further friendship between all girls of all nations. Troop leaders and others interested in scouting give teas during the first three weeks of February. Each person at the tea contributed a quarter to the Juliette Low Fund. The Girl Scouts and Brownies also contribute to this fund by giving as many pennies as they are old.

Polio Drive Nears End

Town Manager Charles T. McDonald announced on Tuesday that the town's annual drive for funds to aid the infantile paralysis campaign had resulted in $1260, with an expected total of about $1300 by the end of the drive. This is slightly more than the total amount collected in Greenbelt last year, Mr. McDonald commented.

Churches Complete Settlements On Sites

The five church groups whose bids for sites within Greenbelt were accepted by PHA have concluded the settlement of the deal and have paid the balance of the sale price for their respective properties, PHA Manager Charles M. Cormack announced on Tuesday.

At the time of the announcement, the deeds to the sites were in the hands of lawyers who were completing the necessary registration of the deeds before turning them over to the church authorities, according to the clergymen whom the Cooperator contacted on Tuesday. The five groups who now own land within Greenbelt as a result of this sale are St. Hugh's Catholic Church, the Greenbelt Community Church, the Greenbelt Lutheran Church, the Mowatt Memorial Methodist Church and the Jewish Community Center.

Women Voters Urge State School Aid

The League of Women Voters urges everyone to write to the state legislature, now in session, pointing out how important it is for the state to grant more financial aid to the educational system.

Councilwoman Elizabeth Harrington emphasized in a statement to the Cooperator this week that state aid could provide a large senior high school in Hyattsville. This, she said, would eliminate the need for such a school in Greenbelt, and the present high school could be converted to a junior high school.

Educational and civic leaders who have been studying the financial needs say that the state incentive fund should be quadrupled and that Prince George County needs an additional ten million dollar grant.

The League suggests that letters be sent to the following: Governor Lane, State House, Annapolis; State Senator Harold L. Sotheron, 4320 Woodberry, University Park, Maryland; Perry O. Wilkinson, 4316 Gallatin St., Hyattsville, Chairman of Prince George's Delegates; and LeRoy Pumphrey, Largo, Md., who is the Majority Floor Leader of the House.

Woman's Club Plans Piano Recital

Mrs. Gordon Finlay, concert pianist, will play for the Woman's Club in a concert to be held on February 24 at 8:15 p.m. in Mrs. Finlay's home, according to Mrs. Samuel L. Houlton, Fine Arts chairman of the organization.

The program will include the following compositions: Nocturne F Sharp, Chopin; Polka, Shostakovich; Turkey in the Straw, Guion; La Campanella, Paganini-Liszt.

Public Speaking Course Has Room For More

The public speaking course being offered in the adult education program is as suitable for the housewife as for the businessman, and will fit all types of occupations, according to Mrs. William J. McDonald, teacher of the course. The class meets on Wednesday nights, at 8 p.m. in room 223 in the Center school, and has room for more students.

Also open for additional students is the class in beginning Spanish, which meets on Wednesday nights at 8 p.m. in room 222.

Information may be had by calling Mrs. Kinzer at Greenbelt 2031, or Mrs. McDonald at Greenbelt 5104.

Council Approves Charter Changes

Changes in the town charter were approved by the town council at a lengthy meeting Monday night and set forth in a resolution to the Prince George's County Delegates to the General Assembly requesting enactment of appropriate amendments during the 1949 session.

The action followed study extending over many months on the part of council members, town manager and town solicitor and several open meetings and public hearings for citizens' suggestions.

Big Time

On only one charter change had no discussion been heard—Councilman Frank Lastner's suggestion to change the name "Town of Greenbelt" to "City of Greenbelt." The council's vote on this motion was three to two, Mayor Thomas J. Canning and Councilman Allan Morrison dissenting.

Election reforms constituted a major change in the charter. Voters in the municipal elections must henceforth register prior to a thirty-day period preceding the election, with no provision for late registration. (At present the charter permits registration up to fifteen days before election day, and thereafter late registration under certain conditions including the payment of a fifty-cent fee.) Extension of time from three to seven days for examination by the Town Clerk of nomination petitions and for acceptance of nominations by nominees is provided for in a charter change. Another change prohibits electioneering within 100 feet of the polls.

Boundary Changes

Boundary changes were approved which if passed by the Legislature will include in the town limits a tract of land in the north end of Greenbelt now included in Department of Agriculture boundaries and will exclude from the town boundaries all pieces of privately owned land, such as the Schrom holdings. The council expressed reluctance to write these "islands" out of the town limits but in view of the property owners' desire to stay outside of Greenbelt the motion was passed four to one, Councilwoman Betty Harrington dissenting.

Personnel Committee Established

A personnel committee was established and the following description will be included in the charter changes: "The Council may appoint a committee of three disinterested citizens to hear or review any individual grievance of any regular employee dismissed or otherwise aggrieved by action of the Town Manager. Such committee shall be advisory in nature only and the decision of the Manager shall be final in all cases, and not reviewable in any court or body."

A charter change was approved to require the town solicitor's presence at council meetings when so requested by the town manager. The charter now requires the solicitor's presence at all council meetings.

Deletion of a former amendment setting the tax rate on rural or farm land was also voted, as well as several minor changes in wording.

Presentation of the resolution to the county delegates will take place Monday, February 28 at Annapolis, when the council members will have an opportunity to discuss the changes with the individual delegates, it was agreed at the council meeting.

Other business at the meeting included authorization of a reply to a Public Housing Administration letter which requested sixty days in which to act next year on the payment in lieu of taxes. The town manager was asked to point out in reply that such a request was impossible if the new council was

Walkout

At the last meeting of the High School PTA a great majority of the teachers present got up and walked out. From the reports we have received, they had a very good reason for doing so, namely: repeated inferences that they favored the double-shift plan for next year over the quonset plan because they would only have to work a half-day.

That's ridiculous. In the first place, if we have to stick to a time-clock procedure, how about paying them time and a half overtime for the hours spent grading papers and preparing for the next day's classes after school is finished? Secondly, any teacher in the school could probably leave that field and earn a far better salary than he is getting now, or may get next year if he stays in that profession.

However, since the subject of quonset huts versus the double-shift seems to have been brought up quite strongly let's take a look at it. Quonset huts are a good idea. They will help to relieve some part of the congestion temporarily, and the kids will stay on a single shift.

But what about the overcrowded conditions for gym? Hallways are certainly no place to try to hold a gym class. The cafeteria is overcrowded now—what will it be like next year? How about the woodworking shops and chemistry classes and typing classes? Are they going to get a lot more equipment to handle the extra pupils on one shift? If so, where are they going to put that equipment? How large are these quonset huts going to be? How large will the classes be under each plan?

Has anyone bothered to ask the pupils and the teachers what they prefer and the reasons for their preference? Has the high school PTA taken any sort of vote on it? We haven't heard of any yet!

Headaches

It looks as if our police no sooner clear up a case of juvenile delinquency than they get hit right in the face with another one. They did a good job on the five youngsters who broke into the North End Food store, both in clearing the situation up and meting out the punishment with the cooperation of the parents of children involved.

The attempted hanging is a lulu, though. Frankly we'd hate to be in the shoes of George Panagoulis in a case like this. He probably has aching ears from irate parents screaming "My Johnny wouldn't do a thing like that!" All we can say is, Johnny wouldn't—if he had a little understanding and discipline at home.

It's Up To You

In view of the latest outbreaks of juvenile delinquency in Greenbelt Citizen's Association has certainly chosen a timely subject and a good authority to bring to the people of Greenbelt tomorrow night. We hope that the parents of Greenbelt will fill the Home Economics room of the Center school to overflowing. Properly run and in steady operation the Citizens Association could be a valuable asset and the leading organization in Greenbelt; but the only way that can be done is through YOU.

Rec Dept Five Plays Baltimore Colts

By Henry Chellman

The Baltimore Colts will invade the local Center school gym on Thursday, February 24, to engage the local Recreation Department five. The Baltimore squad wears colorful green and silver uniforms, with each man having the same number he used in football. The team plays a good, crowd-pleasing brand of basketball, with emphasis on a fast breaking offense. The squad is coached by Fitz Lutz, trainer of the Colt football team.

T. A. Tittle (number 63, weight 198) is a constant offensive threat who shoots anywhere anytime, passes the length of the court with deadly accuracy, and handles the ball with the same slick skill he exhibits on a football field. Charlie O'Rourke (number 66, weight 180) is a great playmaker, fine ball handler, good set shot from the outside, and adept at driving in for layups. LaMarr "Racehorse" Davis (number 51, weight 178) is very fast, an exceptional defensive player who intercepts opponent's passes all over the court, and the finest rebound grabber on the squad.

Other players on the Colts team are Ernie Bladin, Jim Spruill, Ollie Poole, John Sylvester, Jack Simmons, Ralph Steward and Johnny Vardian.

Against this rugged competition the Greenbelt boys will throw coach Bob Lindeman, Stan Provost, Dick Cleveland, Sid Greybeal, Rene Ward, Sonny Cragin, Bob Scott, Pete Cookson, Ted Fox, and Harry Benefiel.

Tickets for this game are available from any of the players or from Jack Zeldin at the High School.

Along Our Street

with Aunt Penny

My telephone table in the hall is a regular "catch-all" for books, magazines, old letters and recipes. This morning, I noticed that the telephone receiver was propped up on some of these books and what-have-you. I'd just put it back on the hook when someone rang the doorbell.

It was a young man from the telephone company. He said one of the other parties on my party line had reported his telephone out-of-order. He explained that when one receiver was off the hook, it took the whole line out of service. When he asked me if I would check my telephone, I turned a deep shade of crimson and told him what I'd discovered.

I made a note then and there to put a sign up over the telephone. In big, bold letters, I wrote, "Always replace the receiver carefully after each call."

Our Neighbors

Rae Algaze, 4-B Hillside, 7502, will be writing "Our Neighbors" column next week. Please call her with all your news.

Mr. and Mrs. Comly Richie, and their daughter Priscilla stopped in Greenbelt last week to greet their many old friends here. Mr. Richie was one of the first clerks in the Co-op food store when it opened. Their home is now in Pennsylvania and they were returning there from a vacation in Florida.

A 3 pound 15 ounce boy was born February 13 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Davis, 14-T Laurel Hill Rd. This is the third boy in the Davis family.

Ellen Linson and Ellie Ritchie gave a shower in honor of June Robertson last Saturday night at the home of the Bassett Fergusons in Sandy Springs, Md. June and Robbie found the gifts for their expected heir appropriately hung on a clothes line in the shower room. About 25 people were there to enjoy the party and explore the amazing spaciousness of the Ferguson residence.

Mrs. Max W. Bloomberg returned from Canada last week where she had been visiting her son and his family. The Bloomberg's grandson, Jon, was one year old on February 14.

Lt. Commander Charles Mandell, 9-E Southway is expected home this week from a special assignment for the Navy. He left Greenbelt January 17 and has stopped at London, French Morocco, and Sicily. Mrs. Mandell has been enjoying a visit from her brother, Charles Hurwitz.

Mrs. Robert St. Clair, former Greenbelt resident and known to her friends here as Benny, is on an extended visit here with her three children, Amy, Steven, and Eva. The children are enjoying the Greenbelt fresh air as a change from New York City which is their home now. Mr. St. Clair is teaching at N.Y.U. and hopes to visit Greenbelt on weekends.

Bobby and Patty Kelly, 9-M Southway had a Valentine party for their friends Monday night. The party was climaxed at 7:30 p.m. when they all listened to the Lone Ranger.

Mr. and Mrs. James K. Kitchen, a former resident of Greenbelt, announced the birth of their first child, a boy, at Cheverly Hospital on February 13. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen formerly worked in the variety store.

Ice cream and cake were consumed in quantity at 56-K Ridge last Saturday night when Susan Reaves celebrated her fifth birthday. In addition to her friends of the neighborhood Susan's two grandmothers attended the festive occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. David White, 24-R Ridge entertained his brother and sister-in-law Mr. and Mrs. N. White last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Mague, 2-J Laurel Hill are enjoying a visit from her father whose home is in Boston.

John Homan, 10-S Southway, and another employee at Bolling Air Field constructed the new transport with a fifteen-baby capacity now in use in the station hospital. The B (for baby) -15 is routed through the corridors between the nursery and the obstetrical ward.

Ellen East gave a Valentine party for several of her little friends on Monday afternoon at her home on Greenbelt Road.

Carol Profitt, 2-year-old of 12-G Plateau caused a lot of excitement at her house Tuesday when she swallowed an open safety pin. Rushed to George Washington Hospital by her mother and neighbors the pin was successfully removed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Klein, 12-H Plateau have been entertaining her mother, her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Garin, and the Garin's two-months old daughter Eva. The Garins expect to move into their apartment at 54-B Crescent this week.

FOX TALES

By Sam Fox

BASKETBALL: Don't forget the big game on THURSDAY, FEB. 24, at the Greenbelt gym when Greenbelt plays the Baltimore Colts Pro Football Team. There will also be a Boys' Club game. You will see all your favorite football players.

F O O T -
BALL: We may see next year out here that the GREENBELT HIGH SCHOOL team is playing football. It will be the first time in the history of the school if it appears. It's a rumor that they will have FOOTBALL.

DROP-INN: Congratulations to Jack McCullom in winning the trophy this month from the DROP-INN for making it a better place to have fun and helping others to get as much fun at the Drop Inn as himself.

TUMBLING: The girls are coming along very fine in their practice for all Greenbelt Night and I am quite sure your children in the show will have a rating of "4" bells. DON'T MISS ALL GREENBELT NIGHT AT THE MARYLAND GYM.

GOLF: You can still join the GOLF CLASS at the High School on Friday Nights from 8 to 10 p.m. The class is taught by a former professional golfer.

DANCE CLASS: The Dance class has been going for 4 weeks and they are having the time of their life and learning how to dance the Arthur Murray way. We hope that we have the same success in getting a SQUARE DANCE group together. If you are interested please call the Recreation Dept. 6966.

DRUGSTORE COWBOY NEWS: John Martone again is making headlines in his boxing, by knocking out one of the better fighters in this area, our next champ . . . The BOYS' CLUB team is really doing a fine job in the Senior division Basketball League and it looks as though SANDERS and LEWIS are doing their part for its success . . . the midget team is now getting started and looked very good Saturday with BAKER and NANCE doing a fine job.

ELEMENTARY P. E. CLASS: We would be very glad at any time if the parents would like to come and observe their children in the P.E. classes at the North End and Center school and see what their children are receiving in Physical Education and get to know the instructor who is teaching your child.

GOLF CLINIC: All golfers are invited to attend the golf clinic tomorrow, February 18, at 8 p.m., at the high school. Featured will be two instructional films: "Way to Better Golf," with Sam Snead and Patty Berg and "Dr. Golf," with Cary Middlecoff.
